TU Students: TU law students seeking financial aid for the program should consult Student Financial Services by contacting Kristi Emerson at kristi-emerson@utulsa.edu.

Non-TU Law Students: To obtain financial aid for study abroad, you must contact the financial aid office at your home institution. Non-TU law students participating in financial aid must have their home institution send a Consortium Agreement to Ms. Kristi Emerson, Assistant Director, Office of Student Financial Services, The University of Tulsa, 800 South Tucker Drive, Tulsa, OK 74104; or by FAX to (918) 631-5105, or by email to <http://admission.utulsa.edu/financial-aid/>.

² Housing for 30 nights. Students may also find housing on their own in non-program facilities.

³ Cost will vary depending on the number and type of courses selected. We anticipate both EU courses will use the same textbook, at a cost of approximately $65 (as of Nov. 2019), though price may fluctuate if a new edition comes out or with rates of exchange. Several courses use materials provided electronically free of charge to students. Reproducing in hard copy is NOT required, but students wishing to do so will incur photocopying costs which will vary with the amount, method, and location chosen to reproduce and could exceed the estimate provided.

⁴ Airfare prices for program dates roundtrip from Tulsa will fluctuate throughout 2019 and 2020. In the past most students found fares at or below $1200. Fares vary substantially and tend to be lower for flights that originate in hub cities.

⁷ This amount will also vary considerably based on the entertainment preferences of individual students.

The rate of exchange is constantly changing, so please keep this in mind when adjusting your budget.

In the summer of 2020, the University of Tulsa's summer program will enjoy its twenty-second year of operation as an ABA-accredited study abroad program.

OUR WONDERFUL STUDENTS

The program welcomes students in good standing from any accredited American or Canadian law school who have completed their first year of legal study, full-time or part-time; students studying for an LL.M.; as well as any attorney admitted to the practice of law in these countries. In the summer of 2017, 37 American law students (73% from TU and 27% from other American law schools) and 4 Irish law students participated. In 2018, 27 American law students (63% from TU and 37% from other American law schools) and 2 Irish law students participated. Anticipated total enrollment for 2020 is 25 to 35 students.

UCD – OUR HOME IN DUBLIN

Our classroom and program housing are located on the Belfield campus of University College Dublin, a 15-minute bus ride (4 km) from city center. Classes are held in a modern classroom in UCD Sutherland School of Law, with wi-fi internet access. UCD School of Law is ranked as one of the leading law schools in Ireland and in the top 100 law schools in the world. The campus is home to over 30,000 students during the regular academic year and has all the facilities you would expect at a major university, including a student union, library, small convenience stores, a state-of-the-art sports facility with an Olympic-sized pool, restaurants, and a student pub. Students who choose to reside in program housing (as the vast majority do) reside on-campus in suites with a common living room and kitchen. Each student will have a single bedroom, and we anticipate that each will have its own private bathroom. Students have the option to find their own housing in Dublin.

CANCELLATION OR CHANGE IN THE PROGRAM, TRAVEL WARNINGS AND ALERTS, AND REFUND POLICY

Although the University of Tulsa has never cancelled the Dublin program since its inception in 1999, the University, as always, reserves the right to cancel the program in the event of under-enrollment or other extenuating circumstances. In the event of cancellation, applicants who have paid a deposit will be notified immediately by e-mail. The Program Director will use his best efforts to assist enrolled students to attend a similar program if desired. If changes are made in the course offerings or other significant aspects of the program, those changes will be communicated promptly by e-mail to any student who has registered, paid a deposit, or is participating in the program. Students affected by the modification will be provided with an opportunity to withdraw from the program upon request. If prior to commencement or during the course of the program, a U.S. State Department or Center for Disease Control Level 3 or 4 Travel Advisory covering program dates and destinations should be issued specifically for the Republic of Ireland, all registrants or students participating in the program will be promptly notified by e-mail and given an opportunity to withdraw from the program.

If a student withdraws prior to commencement of the program due to a change in course offerings or other significant aspect of the program or due to the issuance of a Level 3 or 4 Travel Advisory, as described above, or if the program is canceled, the student will receive a full refund of all money advanced to the University of Tulsa, including the application fee, within twenty days after the withdrawal or cancellation. If a student withdraws for any of these reasons or if the program is canceled during the course of the program, the student will receive a full refund of all money paid by the student to the University of Tulsa, with the exception of any housing payments for housing utilized by the student prior to the date of the withdrawal or cancellation.
